ACT OF INCORPORATION.

The following is the act of incorporation of the Lee Camp:

Whereas, an association of Confederate Veterans has been organized in the city of Richmond, under the title of R. E. Lee Camp, No. 1, Confederate Veterans, the object of which is declared in the by-laws of the association to be to perpetuate the memory of our fallen comrades, and to minister, as far as practicable, to the wants of those who were permanently disabled in the service; to preserve and maintain that sentiment of fraternity born of the hardships and dangers shared in the march, the bivouac, and the battle field; it is proposed not to prolong the animosities engendered by the war, but to extend to our late adversaries on every fitting occasion courtesies which are always proper between soldiers, and which, in our case, a common citizenship demands at our hands. We propose to avoid everything which partakes of partisanship in religion and politics, but at the same time we will lend our aid to the maintenance of law and the preservation of order; and whereas the said association have asked at the hands of the General Assembly of Virginia a charter of incorporation: therefore,

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia, That the officers and members of R. E. Lee Camp, No. 1, Confederate Veterans, be and they are hereby created a body politic and corporate by that name.
2. That the said corporation may have a corporate seal, may sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, may pass by-laws not inconsistent with law.

3. Said association may acquire title to and hold land for the purpose of founding a "Home" for invalid, infirm Confederate soldiers, or for the education and maintenance of the children of invalid and infirm or deceased Confederate soldiers: provided that the said association shall not hold at any time more than five hundred acres of land.

4. Said association shall have the right to receive donations from States, societies, corporations, and individuals, and may from said associations, or from other associations or from the citizens generally, select a Board of Visitors, who shall control such institution or institutions when formed: provided, that in the event of aid being given by the State, that the Board of Public Works and the Judge of the Circuit Court of the city of Richmond shall be visitors on the part of the State.

5. Said association may confer upon similar organizations the right to operate under this charter.

6. This act shall be in force from its passage.

NOTE.—Under section 5 of above charter the power is conferred upon this Camp to issue charters to other similar organizations, and have printed charters for this purpose, which can be obtained upon application. To the application there shall be signed the names of at least fifteen Confederate veterans, giving their command and time of service in Confederate States Army or Navy. It must also be accompanied by the sum of $2.50 and the name proposed to be given to the Camp, which should always be that of some deceased Confederate soldier or sailor.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

TITLE.

This Association shall be known as R. E. LEE CAMP, No. 1, Confederate Veterans.

ARTICLE II.

OBJECT.

The object shall be to perpetuate the memories of our fallen comrades, and to minister, as far as practicable, to the wants of those who were permanently disabled in the service, to preserve and maintain that sentiment of fraternity born of the hardships and dangers shared in the march, the bivouac and the battle-field. It is proposed not to prolong the animosities engendered by the war, but to extend to our late adversaries, on every fitting occasion, courtesies which are always proper between soldiers, and which in our case a common citizenship demands at our hands. We propose to avoid everything which partakes of partisanship in religion and politics, but at the same time we will lend our aid to the maintenance of law and the preservation of order.

ARTICLE III.

OFFICERS.

Section 1. The officers of this Camp shall consist of a Commander, a First, a Second, and a Third Lieutenant-Commander, an Adjutant, a Quartermaster, a Surgeon, a Chaplain, an Officer of the Day, a Treasurer, a Sergeant-Major, a Vidette, a Color Sergeant and two Color Guards, who shall hold their respective offices for a term of one year, or until their successors are elected. Each officer of the Camp above mentioned shall wear on the collar of his coat words, abbreviations or initial letters designating his office.

Sec. 2. There shall also be elected by the Camp an Executive Committee, to consist of three members, to serve for a term of three years or until their successors shall be elected; provided, however, that the members of the Executive Committee, who have been elected under the law now in force, shall serve until the expiration of their respective terms, and that at the next annual election, and at each annual election thereafter, one member of the Executive Committee shall be elected to serve for three years.

ARTICLE IV.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Section 1. The election of officers shall take place on the last regular meeting-night but one of December of each year, and nominations shall be made one week in advance and on the night of election. In all cases of vacancies in office, for any cause, the nominations to fill such vacancies shall be made one week previous to and on night of election.

Sec. 2. All members of the Camp in good standing shall be eligible to any office therein.

Sec. 3. All elections shall be by ballot, unless dispensed with by unanimous consent, when they may be by a viva voce vote.

Sec. 4. In case of a ballot, the majority of all the votes cast shall be necessary to a choice. If there is no election on the first ballot, the name receiving the lower number of votes shall be dropped, and so on in successive ballot until an election is made.

ARTICLE V.

MEETINGS.

Section 1. The regular meeting of this Camp shall be on every Friday night.

Sec. 2. The hour of meeting shall be 8 o'clock.

Sec. 3. Nine members in good standing shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VI.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

Section 1. The Commander shall preside at all meetings, preserve strict order and decorum, and enforce a due observance of the Constitution, By-Laws, and Rules of Order; appoint all committees not otherwise provided for; give the casting vote in case of a tie; inspect and announce the result of all ballots or other votes. He shall approve all orders drawn on the Treasurer for the payment of money. He shall examine the books of the Camp whenever he desires, and shall appoint a committee of three on the last meeting-night in March, June, September, and December to do so. He shall be ex-officio member of all committees. He shall have power to call special meetings of the Camp; or, when required by seven members in writing, he shall convene the Camp.

Sec. 2. The Lieutenant-Commanders shall assist the Commander in the performance of his duties, and in his absence shall take his place in the order of their rank. If neither of them are present the Camp shall elect a Commander pro tem.

Sec. 3. The Adjutant shall keep a record of the proceedings of the Camp, draw all orders on the Treasurer, perform such other duties as may be enjoined upon him by the Camp, and finally deliver up all books and papers belonging to his office to his successor, with the necessary instruction or information to enable him to keep the continuation of records of the Camp.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to take charge of all moneys belonging to the Camp; to pay all orders drawn upon him by the Adjutant, approved by the Commander; to keep a fair and regular account, in a book provided for that purpose, of receipts and expenditures. He shall deposit all moneys collected in some bank designated by the Camp, subject to his check, countersigned by the Commander. He shall, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, give a bond for $300, with surety, to be accepted by the Camp, said bond to be increased from time to time as the Camp may determine.

Sec. 5. The Vidette Guard shall take charge of the door during the session of the Camp, and admit no one without countersign or order of Commander or Lieutenant-Commander.

Sec. 6. The Officer of the Day shall preserve order during the meetings, see that the members behave in an orderly, decorous manner, conduct all ballots, and render such other service as the Commander may require of him.

Sec. 7. The Quartermaster shall have charge of the property of the Camp (except Soldiers' Home property), shall keep an account of the same, and at the end of each year make a report of the quantity on hand and condition. He shall perform such other duties pertaining to the office as the Commander of the Camp may require of him.

Sec. 8. The Sergeant-Major shall keep the account between the Camp and its members, notify all members who are twelve months in arrears, and report to the Camp the last meeting-night in each year those twelve months in arrears. He shall receive all moneys due the Camp, pay the same over to the Treasurer, taking his receipt therefor, and such other duty as may be required of him.

Sec. 9. The Surgeon and Assistant-Surgeon shall perform such duties as may appertain to their office, when required by the Commander.

Sec. 10. The Chaplain shall perform such duties as properly appertain to that office.

Sec. 11. The Color-Sergeant shall perform such duties as properly appertain to that office.

Sec. 12. The Janitor shall be elected annually by the Executive Committee, and shall open and close the hall, keep the room and furniture in good order, and perform such other duties as the Commander may order.

Sec. 13. The Executive Committee shall elect a Janitor to serve for one year, and shall annually report such election to the Camp, have the leasing of the hall, and all communications in regard to it shall be referred to them, and they shall make purchases of all supplies, unless otherwise ordered, for the Camp, other than Quartermaster stores, and no bill against the Camp shall be paid without first being referred to them.

ARTICLE VII.

ELIGIBILITY TO MEMBERSHIP.

Section. 1. Any person of good character, who was regularly enlisted and served honorably in the Confederate States Army or Navy, may be admitted to membership in this Camp.

Sec. 2. Any person of good character who is not eligible to active membership as a veteran, or any veteran who prefers to do so, may become a contributing member of the Camp upon the payment of not less than $5 per year, his connection with the Camp to continue for one year from the time such payment has been made, but shall not cast any vote. Election in all cases to be by ballot.

ARTICLE VIII.

FEES, DUES, AND FINES.

Section 1. The membership fee shall be $1, which shall accompany the application.

Sec. 2. The monthly dues of this Camp shall be twenty-five cents.

Sec. 3. Any comrade who shall misbehave in the Camp, or disobey the Commander, shall be fined fifty cents, and if he still persists in disturbing the harmony of the Camp he shall be ordered to leave the Camp.

Sec. 4. Any officer of the Camp absenting himself five consecutive meetings, the office shall be declared vacant, and on the following meeting the vacancy shall be filled; but this shall not apply to any officer whose non-attendance is caused by sickness or absence from the city.

ARTICLE IX.

IMPROPER CONDUCT.

Any member who shall be guilty of conduct unbecoming a gentleman shall, upon satisfactory proof thereof, be reprimanded, suspended, or expelled, as the Camp sitting as a court-martial shall direct.

ARTICLE X.

SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION.

Section 1. When a comrade shall be charged as in Article IX, specifications of the nature of the offence shall be made in writing and read to the Camp, which charges shall be referred to a committee of five, whose duty it shall be to fairly and impartially investigate the same, record the evidence, and report thereon as early as practicable—the said report to be recorded on the Minutes, and to be acted upon at the next regular meeting, or as soon thereafter as the circumstances will permit: Provided, such trial shall not take place less than six days from proper notification; and provided further, that any comrade being under charges shall not have the right to speak or vote upon any question before the Camp, or appear on parade with the Camp, pending the investigation of said charges; but said comrade shall have the right to give testimony and plead in his own behalf.

Sec. 2. Any member who shall prefer a false and malicious charge against a comrade shall suffer such penalty as the Camp may impose.

ARTICLE XI.

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP.

Section 1. Every application for admission to membership shall be made in writing, and shall give in detail, upon the blanks furnished by the Camp, the applicant's age, birthplace, residence, occupation, date of enlistment, and the command to which he was attached, and be endorsed by a member of the Camp; it shall then be referred to a committee of three—of which number the member recommending shall not be one—for investigation, who shall report thereon at the next regular meeting, when the candidate shall be balloted for with ball ballots. If not more than two black balls appear the candidate shall be declared elected.

Sec. 2. When an application has been rejected, it shall not be again considered for six months thereafter.

ARTICLE XII.

TRAVELING AND WITHDRAWAL CARDS AND RESIGNATIONS.

Section 1. Any member in good standing wishing a Traveling Card can obtain the same upon application to the Commander in open Camp, and paying his dues up to the time for which it is granted, for which he shall pay 25 cents.

Sec. 2. Any comrade wishing a Withdrawal Card shall make application in open Camp, and if clear of the books, and there be no objection made, the same shall be granted, for which he shall pay 50 cents.

Sec. 3. Any comrade may resign from the Camp by presenting his resignation in writing, provided he is not indebted to the Camp.

ARTICLE XIII.

SALUTING THE COMMANDER.

Comrades, upon entering or leaving the Camp, shall advance to the centre of the hall and salute the Commander in a military manner.

ARTICLE XIV.

UNIFORM.

Section 1. The uniform of this Camp shall be a white felt hat, with letters C. V. attached, single-breasted sack coat of gray cloth, with Virginia staff gilt buttons, staff blue pants, with small gold cord down the outer seam, and from October 1 to April 1 a white vest and white tie, and from April 1 to October 1 a gray vest and black tie may be worn. But it shall not be obligatory upon any member to provide himself with a uniform. The uniforms for officers and privates shall be alike except the insignia of rank.

Sec. 2. The metal Badge shall not be sold or given to any one not a member of the Camp, nor shall any other than a member be entitled to wear it, except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

ARTICLE XV.

RELIEF COMMITTEE.

Section 1. The Commander, on night of installation, shall appoint a Chairman and Relief Committee of one from each ward of the city, whose duty it shall be to visit the sick and report to the Camp the nature of the case, when the Camp may appropriate such sums as the committee may recommend, not exceeding $10 in each case, as the Camp may decide. All cases of distress must be referred to Sick Committee.

Sec. 2. On the death of a comrade in good standing, a detail of eight members shall be made to attend his funeral.

Sec. 3. On the death of a comrade, when requested, the Commander will notify the Adjutant, who shall detail two members of the Camp to sit up with the deceased comrade.

ARTICLE XVI.

Section 1. The Commander shall appoint, on the night of his installation, the following Standing Committees composed of such number of comrades as he may determine, but the Camp may from time to time increase the membership of said Committees:

Portrait Gallery Committee.
Library Committee.
Auditing Committee.
Sons of Veterans' Committee.
Employment Committee.
Committee on Delinquent Members.

Sec. 2. Portrait Gallery Committee shall be empowered to collect the portraits of such Confederate soldiers, sailors and other persons distinguished in Confederate service as they may deem proper to accept; to report the same to the Camp in such manner as they may determine; to arrange for and have the control of all public presentation of portraits, and to report semi-annually all portraits received, which shall be recorded by the Adjutant in a book specially kept for that purpose.

Sec. 3. Library Committee shall have charge of all books, pamphlets, &c., belonging to the Library and keep a catalogue of the same. They shall formulate all rules and regulations for the government of the Library, and when approved by the Camp shall enforce the same.

Sec. 4. Sons of Veterans' Committee shall visit the Camp of Sons connected with Camp, and may recommend to the Sons any measures that they may deem of interest or benefit to that organization.

Sec. 5. Auditing Committee shall examine the books of the Camp quarterly and report the result of that examination to the Camp in writing.

Sec. 6. Employment Committee shall be charged with the duty of endeavoring to obtain employment for such comrades as may be in need thereof, and shall report semi-annually to the Camp.

Sec. 7. Committee on Delinquent Members shall receive every three months a written report from the Sergeant-Major containing a list of all members who are over twelve months in arrears to the Camp. The Committee shall instruct the Sergeant-Major to notify the comrade that he is in arrears, who shall report to said Committee any statement he may make. Should the delinquent comrade be unable to pay the amount due, the Sergeant-Major shall obtain from him a statement of what amount, if any, he can pay, and the Sergeant-Major shall so notify the Committee, who shall, in their discretion, direct the Sergeant-Major to receive the amount he will pay and restore said delinquent member to good standing in the Camp, cancelling the balance of amount due by remission; but should the comrade be unable to pay any of his indebtedness to the Camp, then said Committee may direct the Sergeant-Major to cancel the entire amount charged to the comrade and place him in good standing.

ARTICLE XVII.

Section 1. When a member becomes twelve months in arrears he shall be notified of the fact by the Sergeant-Major. When he becomes fifteen months in arrears he shall be again notified and informed that his name will be given to the Committee on Delinquent Members, to whom he can apply for the remission of all or any part of his dues, which Committee, for good and sufficient reasons, can remit a part or all of the dues of said delinquent member and cause him to be restored to good standing, but if after the expiration of three months from the time his name is given to said Committee, he shall not have applied for the remission of his dues nor made any payment of same, the Sergeant-Major shall notify him that unless he make some settlement of his dues, his name will be reported to the Camp on the last meeting of the current year for such action as they may deem advisable.

Sec. 2. The Camp may cause the name of any such delinquent member to be erased from the rolls and the fact recorded on the roster.

ARTICLE XVIII.

All money paid from the treasury of the Camp shall require a two-third vote to make the appropriation, and all propositions for appropriation of money in any sum exceeding One Hundred Dollars shall not be voted on at the same meeting when first offered but shall lay over one week before being acted on.

ARTICLE XIX.

No money shall be appropriated out of the treasury of this Camp to any one not a member of the Camp, and no collection shall be taken up during the session of the Camp for any purpose.

ARTICLE XX.

AMENDMENTS TO BY-LAWS.

These articles, or any part thereof shall not be altered, amended, or annulled, unless a written notice of the same be read at a regular meeting, after which it shall lie over until the next regular meeting, when, if two-thirds of the members present vote in favor of it, it shall be adopted.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. It shall be the duty of the Commander to preserve order and conduct all business before the Camp to a speedy and proper result.

2. He shall state every question properly presented to the Camp, and before putting it to vote shall ask "Is the Camp ready for the question?" Should no member offer to speak, he shall rise to put it, and after he has risen no member shall be permitted to speak upon it.

3. The Commander shall have the casting vote in case of a tie, but ordinarily shall not vote; he shall announce all votes and decisions.

4. The Commander may speak to points of order in preference to other members of the Camp, rising from his seat for that purpose, and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Camp by any two members.

5. If any comrade shall feel himself personally aggrieved by any decision of the Chair, he may appeal from said decision.

6. When an appeal is made from the decision of the Commander, the First Lieutenant-Commander shall put the question thus: "Shall the decision of the Chair be sustained?"

7. A motion must be seconded, and afterwards repeated from the Chair or read aloud, before debated. A motion shall be reduced to writing if any comrade require it.

8. All resolutions shall be submitted in writing.

9. When a member speaks, or offers a motion, he shall rise in his place and respectfully address the Commander, confining himself to the question under consideration, and avoiding personality or unbecoming language.

10. When a member is called to order, he shall take his seat until the point of order is determined.

11. When two or more members rise to speak at the same time, the presiding officer shall decide who is entitled to the floor.

12. No comrade shall speak more than twice, nor longer than ten minutes each time on any question without leave of the Camp, which leave shall be granted or refused without debate.

13. While a comrade is speaking, no one shall interrupt him except for the purpose of calling him to order or asking of the Chair leave to explain. A comrade allowed to explain shall only have the right to explain an actual misunderstanding of language, and shall be strictly prohibited from going into debate on the merits of the case.

14. For any comrade in speaking to impeach the motives of a comrade, or treat him with personal disrespect, or pass between him and the Chair while he is speaking, shall be deemed a violation of order, which may incur the censure of the presiding officer of the Camp.

15. Any conversation, by whispering or otherwise, which is calculated to disturb a comrade while speaking, or hinder the transaction of business, shall be deemed a violation of order, and if persisted in shall incur censure.

16. It shall be the duty of the Chair and the privilege of any member of the Camp to call a member of the Camp to order who violates a standing rule of order.

17. Any comrade having made a motion may withdraw it, with leave of his second, before it is debated, but not afterwards without leave of the Camp.

18. When the decision of any question is doubted the Commander shall count, or direct the Officer of the Day to count, the votes in the affirmative and negative and announce the same.

19. When a question is before the Camp, the only motions in order shall be: 1st, to adjourn; 2d, to lay on the table; 3d, the previous question; 4th, to postpone to a definite period; 5th, to refer; 6th, to divide, if the sense will admit of it; 7th, to amend—to take precedence as herein arranged, and the first three to be decided without debate; 8th, to postpone indefinitely.

20. When the previous question is moved and seconded, it shall be put in this form: "Shall the main question now be put?" If this question is carried, all further motions, amendments and debate shall be excluded, and the question put without delay; if the question has been amended, the question shall first be taken on the amendment; if more than one amendment has been made, the last amendment in order shall take precedence in the vote.

21. A motion to amend an amendment shall be in order, but to amend an amendment to an amendment shall not be in order.

22. When a blank is to be filled by the name of persons, the vote shall be taken upon the names in the order of their nomination; but when a blank is to be filled by any sum of money, or time proposed, the question shall first be put on the largest sum and the most remote time.

23. When a motion has been indefinitely postponed shall not be reconsidered.

24. A question may be reconsidered at the same or next meeting; but a motion being made to reconsider, and decided in the negative, shall not be renewed at the same meeting.

25. A motion to reconsider must be made and seconded by members who voted in the majority. No question shall be reconsidered more than once. To recon-der any resolution, &c., the decision of which has officially passed out of the Camp, shall not be in order.

26. The yeas and nays upon any question before the Camp may be called for by any two members, and upon the assent of one-third of the members present shall so be taken.

27. In voting by yeas and nays all present must vote who are in regular standing, unless excused by the Camp. A motion to excuse shall be decided without debate.

28. The reading of any paper called for, relating to the subject under debate, shall always be in order.

29. All reports of committees, except reports on propositions for membership, shall be made in writing and signed by a majority thereof.

30. When a majority report is followed by a report from the minority of a committee, the former, after being read, shall lie upon the table until the latter is presented, after which, on motion, either may be considered.

31. The comrade first named in the appointment of a committee shall be chairman of the same.

32. No standing Rule of Order of this Camp shall be rescinded or changed without the assent of three-fourths of the members present; but a standing Rule of Order may be suspended for any particular occasion, upon the assent of a majority of the members present, except in cases of applications for membership, which shall in all cases lie over for one week, as provided in Article XI, Section 1.

REGULATIONS

GOVERNING THE BOARD OF VISITORS OF SOLDIERS' HOME.

ARTICLE I.

The funds raised, and all that may be hereafter raised for this purpose, are hereby set apart and appropriated to the "Home" in or near the City of Richmond, Va., for indigent and infirm ex-Confederate soldiers and sailors.

ARTICLE II.

Ex-Confederate soldiers and sailors who served honorably during the war and have borne a good character since, shall be entitled to admission to said "Home," and support and maintenance while there, free of charge, if they are indigent and infirm.

ARTICLE III.

Applications for admission to the Home must be made to the Board of Visitors, and by them granted or rejected; but no application shall be considered unless accompanied by a certificate from some Judge of the State from which the application comes, or of the clerk of the Judge's court, that the applicant comes within the provisions of Article II.

ARTICLE IV.

All applicants admitted to the Home shall furnish the name and number of their company and regiment, with their term of service, and shall, upon their admission, sign an obligation to abide by and obey all rules made for its government and the order of all officers in authority over the Home, upon pain of dismissal for any violation of such rules or disobedience of such officers: Provided, That the Executive Committee, hereinafter provided for, shall hear all of the evidence and determine whether there has been any such offence, with the discretion to inflict a less punishment than dismissal if in their judgment proper under all of the circumstances in the case.

ARTICLE V.

Once a year the Commander of the Camp shall appoint an Inspector, who shall inspect and report the condition of the Home, its management, and any other matter relating thereto which he may deem proper. It shall be the duty of the Board of Visitors to make a report to the Camp, annually, of all property of the Home and its value, the number of inmates, and the receipts and disbursements.

ARTICLE VI.

There shall be a Board of Visitors, twenty-six in number, in addition to the Visitors on the part of the State, of which Board the Commander of the Camp shall be one, ex officio. The Board is directed to so arrange the names of the members elected by the Camp that hereafter four of them shall be dropped in July of each year in turn, when their places will be filled by the Camp. When members are elected to fill accidental vacancies they will hold the position for the length of the term of the members whose vacancies they fill. Nothing herein shall be so construed as to render any Visitor ineligible for re-election. At least sixteen of the Board shall be members of the Camp; and any member who allows himself to be dropped from the roll of the Camp shall thereby cease to be a member of the Board of Visitors.

Five members shall constitute a quorum for business. The Board shall meet at least once a month, and oftener if they deem it proper. They shall serve without pay. They shall have power to make such rules and regulations in relation to the government and maintenance of the Home and as to the qualification of its members and officers as they think proper, so that the same may not come in conflict with the Charter and By-Laws of this Camp.

They shall have power to erect necessary buildings and furnish and equip them. They shall have charge of all property and money belonging to the Home fund; but the title to the property purchased shall be in the Camp.

ARTICLE VII.

OFFICERS OF THE BOARD.

The officers of the Board of Visitors shall be a President, First and Second Vice-Presidents, Secretary and Treasurer, to be filled as to Secretary and Treasurer by the same person if the Board think proper.

ARTICLE VIII.

All of said officers shall be elected by the Board, and shall serve for four years, or until their successors shall be elected and qualified. The Board may vacate any of said offices at will and refill them.

ARTICLE IX.

The Treasurer shall execute such bond as the Board shall prescribe in a penalty not less than $10,000 conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties. He shall keep all money in some bank named by the Board, not to be drawn out except by his check, payable to the order of the person to whom the money is to be paid and upon the order of the Chairman or Acting Chairman of the Finance Committee, endorsed upon a voucher certified by Superintendent or Acting Superintendent of the Home, and approved by the Chairman or Acting Chairman of the Committee under whose direction the expenditure was made.

ARTICLE X.

The Board of Visitors may select from their number an executive committee of three, to whom such duties may be committed as the Board may prescribe. The said Board may elect a Commandant or Superintendent, and such other officers as they deem necessary, and fix their compensation.

ARTICLE XI.

VACANCIES—HOW FILLED.

In case of a vacancy occurring from any cause it shall be filled by the Camp, for which purpose notice shall be given to the Camp when said vacancy occurs.

ARTICLE XII.

Any Visitor who may prove inefficient or be guilty of misconduct may, by vote of a majority of the Board, have his place declared vacant, and a report of the same shall be made to the Camp; or, if the Board prefer, they may report the matter to the Camp for investigation.

ARTICLE XIII.

Any Visitor shall have power to enter temporarily, in case of urgent necessity, an inmate in the Home pending an investigation of his qualification; but the same must be brought before the Board at its first meeting. And if between the time of his admission and the first meeting of the Board it shall be evident that he is not worthy, the Visitor who entered him into the Home shall have power to dismiss.
